1960

Dedication

For his work given in the planning of this Seminary —

For his sacrifices made in the building of this Seminary —

For his prayers offered to maintain this Seminary —

For his example given to make the students of this Seminary good Seminarists —

We, the students of Regina Cleri Seminary, in grateful appreciation, dedicate The Crown of 1960 to the Most Reverend Daniel J. Gercke, Bishop of Tucson.

Theme

“And there shall come forth a rod out of the root of Jesse, and a flower shall rise up out of his root.” Thus the seed of prayer and sacrifice was planted; and then, slowly but majestically, the bud vigorously and boldly came forth; and the seminary was founded.

The following years are devoted to nourishing and caring for this delicate bud which begins to blossom. And the young blossom continues in growth, seeking the maturity, the full bloom, for which it was planted.

Now the flower is in bloom and boldly does it overcome the onslaughts of the wind and the sand, for it is rooted in God.

Thus we humbly thank God for the grace of sharing in the development of this flower-in-the-desert which is added to the glorious crown of Our Lady, Queen of the Clergy.

To The Students Of Regina Cleri Seminary
Tucson, Arizona

On the occasion of the first graduating class in the Regina Cleri Seminary, I wish to address a few words to the students.

In the history of the world one generation passes away and another comes into being. So with the priesthood. Over 1900 years ago Christ established His Church and ordained its first priests. He Himself has assured us that it will go on infallible and indefectible until the end of time.

The very existence of the Church, according to God's design, depends on His priests. He leaves men free and inspires some with a vocation that is divine. Thus the Church goes on fulfilling this prophecy of Christ, that He would be with it until the end of the world. The highest privilege, that God can bestow on a man, is that of the priesthood. To a priest is given the power of restoring life to the souls of men. To do this, as Saint Augustine tells us, is a greater gift in the spiritual order, than to create the world.

Our Queen, Our Blessed Mother gave birth to Christ. In the hands of the priest Jesus, Our Saviour is born anew every day at holy Mass. How holy then, as the Imitation of Christ reminds us, should be the life of a priest who enjoys such distinctions.

The ambition of every student for the priesthood should be to become a holy and learned priest. His life should be based on the examples of our Divine Lord and His Blessed Mother. They should be his models.

I avail myself of this opportunity to offer congratulations to the graduates, the Rector and all those connected with the Seminary. Time passes quickly. We pray God and Mary, His Mother that our students may enjoy the grace of perseverance to the goal of the priesthood.

Devotedly yours in Christ,

+ Daniel J. Grecco,
Bishop of Tucson

Dear Seminarists,

It is with great pleasure that I learn of the proposed Year Book which you are planning to publish. This year has special significance in that it will see the first graduation from the High School department of our Seminary. It is most fitting that it be commemorated by the publication of the first Seminary Annual.

Historians of a future date will be grateful to you and hold your name in benediction for beginning this project, which will graphically portray life in our Regina Cleri Seminary.

I take this occasion to send you and the Fathers my hearty commendation, and the assurance of my prayers that God bless you and crown your efforts with great success.

With all good wishes and my fervent prayers that God bless you and those dear to you and keep you always in His love, I am,

Very sincerely yours in Christ,

Diary

Sept. 10 On this memorable day, the pioneer class of twenty-four students entered the gates of Regina Cleri and were greeted by its first faculty—Father Wm. J. Mahoney, C. M., Rector; Father M. Pelleteri, C. M., Prefect; Father John Burger, C. M., Spiritual Director; and Father Wm. T. Byrne, Procurator. That evening they were officially welcomed by Bishop Gercke.

Oct. 21 The seminary was officially dedicated to Mary, Queen of the Clergy, by his Eminence, James Francis Cardinal McIntyre. Also present were Bishop Daniel J. Gercke, our founder; Bishop Francis J. Green; and Bishop Bernard T. Espelage, O. F. M., of the Diocese of Gallup. Before the dedication ceremony an open house was held, so that the faithful of the diocese could see the result of their generous donations.

Jan. 27 Our beloved Prefect, Father Pelleteri, is to be transferred back east. A talent show was held in his honor this evening, in which a program entitled "This Is Your Life, Father Pelleteri," was presented.

Feb. 2 After it had snowed on Mt. Lemmon this week, we were invited by Tom Hall's parents to spend the day at their cabin. We joyfully accepted and had a wonderful time playing in the snow.

Feb. 16 Today construction was begun on our field house and swimming pool. Something for us to look forward to when it begins to get hot again.

Bishop Gercke celebrated the first official Mass in the student's chapel. Assisting him are Father Mahoney and Father Byrne.

Bishop Gercke speaks at the dedication of his seminary on October 21.

Here is part of the crowd that attended the dedication.

Diary

- Sept. 3 Regina Cleri opened for its second time today. We wish to welcome Father Louis Franz, C. M., our new prefect, and the new freshman class.
- Oct. 11 We hiked seven miles to Saguaro National Monument today. After we had arrived there, we spent our time climbing mountains. We will certainly be glad to get to bed tonight.
- Nov. 9 Shamrock Dairy invited the student body to come out and visit its establishment. After a grand tour of the dairy, we were taken to a beautiful dining room where we were served a delicious ham dinner.
- Dec. 8 Mother Orozco celebrated her fiftieth anniversary as a religious today. After a Solemn High Mass was offered, a banquet was held in her honor in the refectory. About a hundred nuns from the Tucson area were present.
- Jan. 29 The new wing is now being built. The plans show that the bottom floor will be a large recreation hall, and a new dormitory will be on the top floor.
- Feb. 2 Bishop Gercke presided over a ceremony in which the names of the donors to the seminary were placed under the main altar.
- Feb. 13 The Sophomores went up to spend the night at Hall's cabin on Mt. Lemmon. As the Freshmen watched them leave, their faces were green with envy; even though they were going up the next morning to spend the day there themselves.
- May 17 Mary's Day (our field day) was held for the first time here at the seminary. The Sophomores piled up the most points in the class competition, and thus they won the trophy.
- May 29 A celebration was held in honor of Father Mahoney's tenth anniversary as a priest. Several students have spent approximately six months gathering the material for the program, "This Is Your Life, Father Mahoney."

"Stulti Discipuli, it says 'to have been loved!'"

Therefore it behooves us . . .

Diary

- Sept. 7 Our chapel is being used as the temporary church of Our Mother of Sorrows which is now being built. There are five masses here every Sunday.
- Sept. 25 Fr. Mahoney's birthday. A banquet was held in his honor, and a short entertainment was held afterwards.
- Oct. 5 Mary's Hour was held in Tucson today. The students walked in procession through a drizzling rain from St. Augustine's Cathedral to the University football stadium. A large crowd gathered in spite of the miserable weather.
- Oct. 8 Pope Pius XII passed away into the hands of Christ this evening at 7:52 P.M. Tucson time. The passing of this great man was the result of a coronary attack which he suffered on the 6th of this month.
- Oct. 28 Angelo Guisepppe Roncalli, Cardinal of Vienna, was elected the new pope. He chose the name of John XXIII. LONG LIVE THE POPE!
- Nov. 16 It snowed most of the day today. It was fantastic. There were about 5 inches of snow on the ground. The students took advantage of the white stuff by having several snowball fights and by making many snowmen.
- Nov. 25 After three years the statues for the front of the building finally arrived. The statues are of Regina Cleri, our patroness, St. Vincent De Paul, and St. John Vianney.
- Feb. 1 We played our first basketball game with an outside team today. The Miami team beat us 51-50.
- Feb. 6 The Junior class went on their traditional journey to Mt. Lemmon, this time to spend the night at Tom McKay's cabin.
- Feb. 15 We played St. John's Indian School this afternoon. They beat our Junior Varsity 34-22, and we beat their Varsity 84-57.
- April 20 A fund raising campaign for the Mother's Day celebration began today. It included slave auctions, raffles of various items, and three different movies.
- April 30 We went to Sts. Peter & Paul Church today to attend the ordinations of Fr. McAninch and Fr. Stromberg.
- May 10 After a successful fund raising campaign, we had a wonderful Mother's Day celebration consisting of a scrumptuous banquet and some very fine entertainment.
- May 16 Mary's Day! The Juniors took the class honors again!

"Adoro Te Devote"

"Dominus Meus et Deus Meus"

Throughout the day the mind has been busy at work solving the daily school problems, but now it is given the chance to think about spiritual problems and truths.

Many troubled souls find soothing consolation from the expert and God-inspired advice given by the Seminary Spiritual Director, Father Joseph Dowd, C.M.

"... pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen." And what more beautiful prayer of mercy can we say together so as to be helped now and at the hour of our death, than the Rosary?

Besides the devotions in common, the students pursue the spiritual life on their own.

The Proper Choir consists of student chosen from the regular choir. Their purpose is to sing the mass propers, antiphons, and any other pieces of music which need special singing. Father Hoyos is directing (front row) Ben Flores, Mike Critchley, Jim Dooris, Pedro Careaga, Alfonso Corrales, Fred Dardis; (back row) Bill Bernal, Joe Earnshaw, Chris Chavez, Chuck Aguilar, Mike Fennerty, and John Joyce.

"Canemus ad Dominum . . ." rang the voices of the seminary choir members. They sing on special feasts and special occasions.

Brent Bardon and Fred Dardis, masters - of - ceremonies, preparing servers for a Solemn Mass.
