VOLUME VIII

IN THIS YEARBOOK WE HAVE TRIED TO USE MEANINGFUL PICTURES AND TO ELIMINATE TRIVIAL PRINT; WE HAVE USED A SIMPLE FORMAT AND HAVE WORKED WITH ONLY OUR READER IN MIND.

ACCORDINGLY, WE DEDICATE THE 1967 CROWN TO YOU, OUR READER. AND WE ASK IN RETURN YOUR UNDERSTANDING.

Not many people know what Regina Cleri Seminary is; nor do they understand why a teenager becomes a seminarian. Do you?

You probably share many of the popular misconceptions about the purpose of the Seminary, life in the Seminary, and about seminarians themselves. Perhaps you have always felt that the seminarian and the life which he leads is far from relevant to normal, modern society and thus far from your world.

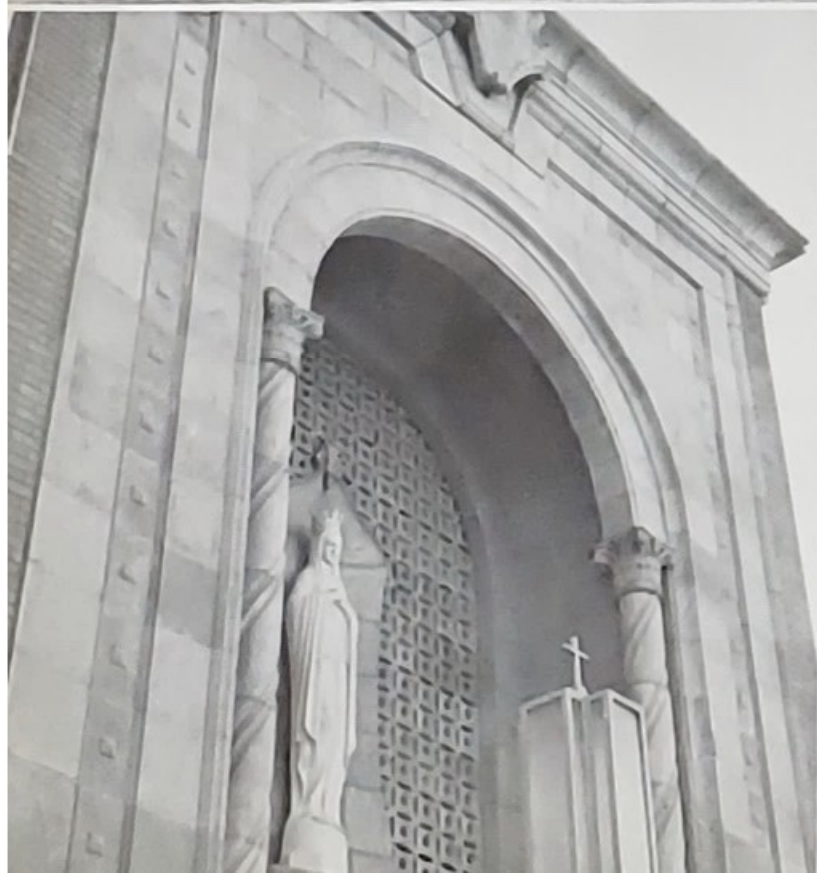

To give you a clearer insight into the goals, interests, and spirit of the seminarian, we have chosen "understanding today's seminarian" as our theme. Our hope is that the pictures in this book will leave you with a little better idea of both Regina Cleri and the seminarian of today.

WHAT IS REGINA CLERI SEMINARY?

WHERE SPIRITED TEENAGERS ...

WITH NORMAL INTERESTS . . .

The books he reads range from background material for classes, to spiritual reading, to the latest spy thriller. Authors . . . from Thomas Merton to Truman Capote. Some of his favorite books are Hawaii, Grapes of Wrath, Exodus, Mutiny on the Bounty . . .

He is an avid movie fan and whether the critics hail it another Ben Hur or condemn it as sophomoric, he wants to see the latest movie himself and make his own decision. He rates Doctor Zhivago, Virginia Woolf, The Russians Are Coming, actors Rod Steiger and Paul Newman, and actresses Julie Christie and Julie Andrews top box-office attractions. Television he seldom watches, except sports events and an occasional program such as Mission: Impossible or The Avengers.

Reading the daily newspaper and watching Huntley—Brinkley he keeps up with the news of the world. To supplement this he reads, with the rest of the nation, such weekly magazines as Time and Newsweek

He swings with the top ten and after a hard day of classes likes nothing better than to curl up with his favorite novel to the mariachi beat of Herb Alpert's Tijuana Brass, the haunting lyrics of Simon and Garfunkel, or the what-ever-adjective-you-care-to-dream-up-like music of the Mama's and the Papa's.

He cheers lustily for his team, whether it be the RCS Dust Devil Varsity competing in the state CYO championship game, or the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame battling Michigan State for the number one rating in the country. He died with the Dodgers or gloried with the Orioles in the '66 Series. And on Super Sunday he raked in his bets with a Starr-led Packer victory.

FOOTBALL

Touch football may be out of style politically, but the way that it is played at R.C.S.—the spirit and enthusiasm shown by the students, and the challenge in the game itself—make it as rough as any political campaign, or tackle football.

To facilitate 100% participation the school is divided into leagues: Minor and Major.

ALL-STARS

The nine best players showing outstanding ability and sportsmanship throughout the season are chosen from among the students to compete in an all-Star game against the rest of the school. This year's team was piloted by Greg Scholz, The Outstanding Football Player of '66 and '67, who threw six "bombs" to his fast end, Jose Luis Flores, to sweep the "Rinky-Dinks" with a score of 58-6.

Mike Jereb used his huge 6' 5" frame and his enormous hands to their best advantage in snaring on both offense and defense any pass coming near him.

With the speed of greased lightning, and deceptive footwork Reggie Vasquez usually managed to have the defensive man beat when Greg Scholz's short-yardage, bullet passes came hurtling in.

BASKETBALL

Total student participation is urged in our intramural basketball program. There are two leagues, thus affording all—from the most uncoordinated freshmen to the "Couseys" of the upper classes—the chance to play with those of approximately the same skill or lack thereof. Each of the eleven teams has only six players so everybody plays at least half a game.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's talented Varsity squad brought victory and honor to Regina Cleri in both city and state competition.

SOFTBALL

VOLLEYBALL

Every year, the regular sports program is varied with field days. All track events are conducted in the morning while the afternoon is saved for some water sports. Every class puts forth its best effort in showing their spirit and sportsmanship. Everyone is asked to participate, but there are still some of us who are not winners and come in last place—right Fleming?

During the field day, different types of events take place. Such events as the JERK contest, the race to Chapel, the new U.F.O. throw, the meatball toss, and everybody's favorite, the taffy pull.

The sound of the R.C.S. Choir's majestic performances; the sound of our folk singers entertaining audiences of all ages; the sound of our group strumming a lively beat; these are the sounds of music, joy, laughter.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Yuletide celebrations at Regina Cleri this year began a week early with a football Holiday Tournament between the classes, which saw the speedy Junior team decisively beating the burly Senior squad to win the series.

On the day of the annual All-Star football game, the festivities began in earnest with the classes competing College Bowl style. The senior duo, Dan Conditt and Marvin Southard, rolled up a huge score in swamping the rest of the classes in the contest. In the evening a delicious banquet and speeches by the Student Body President, Rector, and Bishop Green preceded the arrival of Santa, who brought humorous gifts for both the faculty and students.

After Santa departed, the scrambling Senior class won a noisy Treasure Hunt and carried the spoils to the dorm. Seniors John Fenner and Eric Robichaud won the Talent Contest which followed with their novel instrumentals.

The day ended with a scoff of ice cream and doughnuts. Christmas vacation began the following day.

MARDI

GRAS

Mardi Gras is one of many student events during the year which gives the classes an opportunity to compete with each other in demonstrating their talent, imagination, and wit, usually at the expense of some member of the faculty.

VOCATIONS PROGRAM

Feeling that personal contact has a definite importance not only in encouraging vocations but also in establishing healthy relationships with others, the seminarians made use of every opportunity by speaking to assorted high school and grammar school students and other groups, showing what the seminary means to each of them and its individual importance in their lives.

T.V. MASS

Once a week, Fr. Hoernig, accompanied by three seniors, tapes the T.V. "Mass for Shut-Ins," a pre-taped Mass for those sick or of old age who are unable to attend Sunday Mass. The Mass is recorded at station KOLD and televised the following Sunday.

HOSPITAL AIDES

On the weekends, Juniors and Seniors, in a double shift, go to St. Joseph Hospital to help the hospital personnel in any way possible, and also to give themselves the experience of learning to talk with people.

THE SPIRIT OF THE CHANGING CHRIST

... IN TODAY'S SEMINARIAN

Our development in personal maturity depends greatly on our willingness to accept the celebrant's invitation to further prepare ourselves for the tasks involving the "new" Church.

The uniqueness of the individual is shown in the process of growth; and in this process a regular evaluation is necessary. Consequently, this year's retreat, led by Father Ronald Ramson, was the checkpoint by which we made an examination of our personal development.

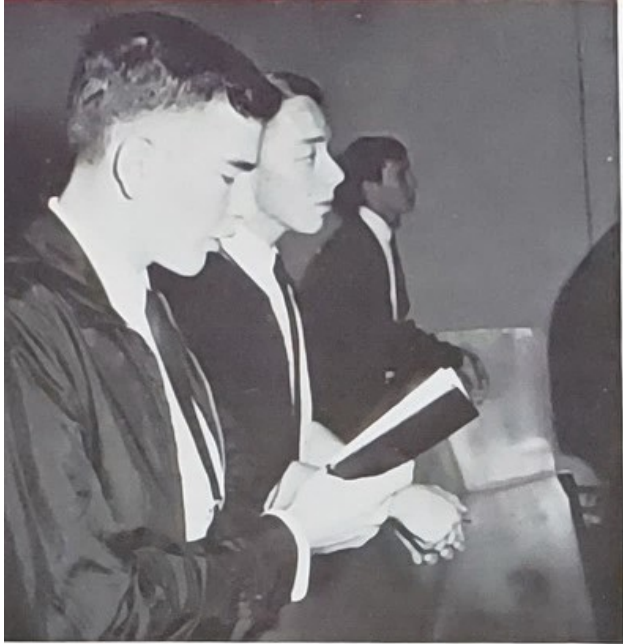

Rev. Ronald Ramson C. M.

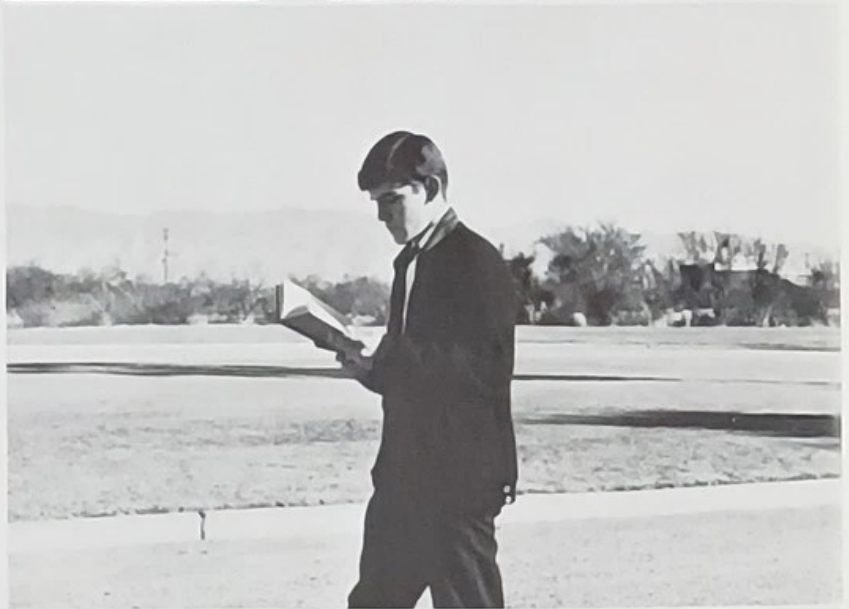

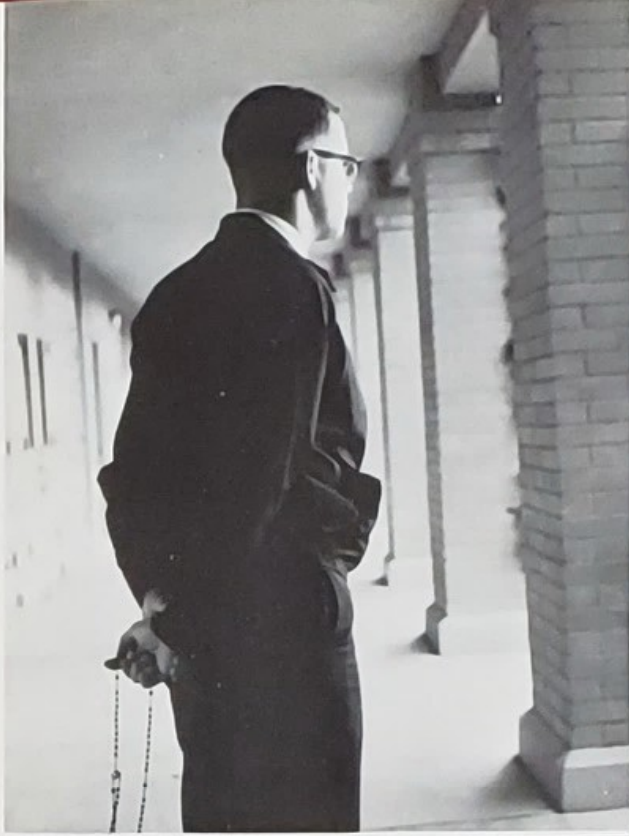

The winds of reform in the changing liturgy are displayed by expressing ourselves during the Divine Sacrifice in a way most meaningful for us—a folk Mass.

Various spiritual activities help the individual seminarian in his personal attempt to achieve the goals of the priesthood; to develop a genuine and sincere attitude, and a practical understanding of our modern society.

In a constant effort to portray the "person" as our greatest of values, the seminary's spiritual program complements the other school activities in giving us a dynamic outlook on life as a continuation of the brotherhood of Christ, as a personal development of maturity, and as a living fulfillment of Christ's love for the world.

SCHOLASTIC

LANGUAGES

Latin, the language of the Church; Spanish, the language of the Southwest; and English, the language of America are the linguistic subjects we study at Regina Cleri. Both English and Latin are taken all four years, Spanish is taught to the Juniors and Seniors.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Discussion and note-taking is the basis for Fr. Rohrich's popular and challenging Social Studies classes. The only complaint the Freshmen World History scholars and the Junior American History and Civics students have, concerns his devious tests.

SCIENCES

Slide rules and  $P_{205}$ 's beta particles and photosynthesis, and most of all Fr. Mac. These things mean science to the Seniors taking Chemistry, and the Sophomores studying Physical Science.

MATHEMATICS

Algebra for the Freshmen, geometry for the Sophomores, and an elective Advanced Algebra course for the Seniors are the Mathematic courses given at R.C.S. Fr. Derbes is our intrepid leader in our excursions into the bewildering intricacies of the new math.

RELIGION

Our Religion courses at Regina Cleri stress a modern approach to modern problems and to the unchangeable truths of our faith. We have included in this section Father 'Hoyos' Chant Class which helps us to participate more fully in our daily Liturgy.

NORTH AMERICA

... The home missions represent a genuine concern; over 215,000,000 people live in the United States and Canada and 50,000,000 are Catholic. In North America the Church is free and prosperous. Nevertheless, there is a home mission problem in the U. S. and Canada in over eighty Dioceses.

LATIN AMERICA

... A period of decision is at hand ... whether 180,000,000 souls will remain loyal to the Church or seek refuge in Communism is a question that undoubtedly will be settled in our lifetimes.

AFRICA

... This continent is rapidly arising into prominence and is stirring itself as though shaken by a bad dream. The Church has made many notable advances in this area but the spiritual conquest of the 200,000,000 souls of Africa offers a severe challenge.
